

CHOOSE THE KING

God asked Samuel to find the new king. Wow! That's an important job! God sent Samuel to Jesse's house to meet his EIGHT sons. God told Samuel that the youngest son, David, would be the next king because David loved God. Play this fun version of "Duck, Duck, Goose" with your preschooler to help them remember that they can trust God to help them just like he helped Samuel.

Here's what to do:

- 1 Review the Bible story with your child and talk about how Samuel trusted God to help him find the next king.
- 2 Gather your family (or stuffed animal friends) and make a circle.
- 3 Have one person pretend to be Samuel. Say "No, no, no, king!" as they walk around the circle tapping everyone's heads.
- 4 When they say "king!" the person they tapped should stand up and run around the circle. When they get back to their original spot, have everyone shout together, "I can trust God!" Now, the person who was tapped gets a turn to be Samuel.
- 5 Continue playing until everyone has a turn being Samuel.
